DISASTER RELIEF TEAM HEADING TO NASHVILLE, TN. AREA
MAY 1—MAY 7

WHY? - Floods of May - August 2010

Floods affected 31 counties across all 7 Districts of the TN United Methodist Conference
41,500 households were affected
3,000 families estimated to need long term assistance

Volunteer Efforts thus far:

129 teams have worked in these 7 Districts from May to December 2010.
107 teams currently scheduled through this summer
To date, 1,481 volunteers have helped with the flood recovery

WHO heads this coordinated recovery?

Tennessee United Methodist Conference working in conjunction with the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) and United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM).

WHAT will FUMC Team be doing:

The specifics will be sent to John Cottle, Team Leader, two to three weeks prior to the trip. Past trips have involved a multitude of work projects; carpentry, installing cabinets, painting, drywall, laying tile, siding, sanding, door facings, window facings, putting in insulation, and many other types of recovery relief. The local coordinator where the team will be housed, will make an assessment of our capabilities and let John know.

Great fellowship, lots of fun, and an enrichment of the heart, knowing that FUMC is in mission for Christ.

*****

Anyone interested in being a part of this team, or in getting more information to better make a decision, should call John Cottle, 751-3127, or the Church Office, 751-2503.

OPPORTUNITY TO SUPPORT YOUTH MISSION

Carolina Cross Connection (CCC) is a super ministry that connects students and adults to mission opportunities every summer. FUMC youth will be participating in the CCC mission this summer. In 2010, 1300 students and adults were able to help nearly 700 people with much needed Home Repairs and Hope in Western NC.

A Carolina Cross Connection Family Event Fundraiser will be held on Saturday, March 12, from 3-7 pm, Clemmons United Methodist Church, 3700 Clemmons Rd (Hwy 158), Clemmons, NC. All proceeds go to support the much needed home repair supplies for the 2011 summer camp season. Event includes a BBQ plate with all the fixin's or hot dogs & chips for the kids, games, worship, and silent auction. $15 adults (13 yrs and older) and $10 for those under 13. Tickets may be purchased or a donation given at www.carolinacrossconnection.org/event.
